2. ERD has been invited by the office of the NIO for East Asia to participate in a conference on North Korean political and economic affairs to be held at Arlington Hall from 15-18 October. The conference will be a roundtable discussion focused on Soviet-North Korean relations, Chinese-North Korean relations, South Korea-North Korea relations, and the internal political and economic affairs of North Korea. Participants have been invited from all organizations in the Intelligence Community who are responsible for non-military analysis of North Korea. ERD plans to send analysts from RSB and BIB to the conference.
